SPEAKERS There have been a few glitches in the programme recently due to either speakers or members not being available on the dates required. I have therefore had to allocate some names to fill the gaps, and some members will be getting rather shorter notice than usual but I hope they will be able to speak themselves or find a speaker on the dates suggested.

Just a reminder, when your name appears on my lucky dip (alphabetically) you do not have to speak yourself unless you have something in mind but it's a question of finding someone who you can invite to speak. I do have a couple of suggestions in hand which I can pass on if required. Gus.
